L. TODD KELLY

With a protector's heart, Todd Kelly mesmerizes audiences big and small around the world. Bold, unapologetic, and a true fighter - Kelly knows what it takes to succeed personally and professionally. Being a sought-after trial lawyer and media commentator - Kelly knows how to grab the hearts and minds of any audience.

Paired with his raw honesty, Kelly's frankness about his "failures" allows his C-Suite and professional audiences to know that failures happen, but quitting is not an option. Coupled with his life and professional lessons, Kelly quickly becomes a repeat presenter for corporate organizations and associations year after year.

POPULAR PRESENTATIONS INCLUDE

- Father, Fighter, Founder

From the boardroom to the backyard, what it looks like to be an influential professional, partner, and parent weighs heavily on the hearts and minds of today's C-suite men.

Wondering how to balance it all, get it all, and not lose what they value most is a struggle every man faces. Yet few seek an actual path out.

- Worth Dying For

With the average American professional spending over 90,000 hours at work over their lifetime, it is no wonder that 60% of these professionals feel emotionally detached at work. These feelings of disheartenment lead to dismay and depression - and worse yet, doubting their life choices.

- Affairs Of The Soul

Affairs don't just happen in the bedroom. They happen in the courtroom, board room, and anywhere we have lost our clear North Star. And though being lost and being a leader can occur for a bit, this disconnect of self, soul, and success will eventually destroy everything - including yourself.
